WHO IS BRENDA JONES?

Detroit City Council President Brenda Jones is a leader with extensive experience

In 2018, Brenda Jones was elected to Michigan's 13th Congressional District to complete John Conyers, Jr.'s term. Despite a five-week tenure, she voted 77 times and sponsored two pieces of legislation.

Brenda Jones' public service began in 2005, when she was first elected to the Detroit City Council. She has been re-elected for three consecutive terms and elected president of the body by her peers, twice. Brenda Jones is currently President of the Detroit City Council.

BRENDA JONES IS:

- An experienced legislator
- A proven and trusted leader
- An effective public servant

The District needs a leader in Congress that will work on behalf of the 13th District!
